

A Successful Week in Reno

The Reno Livestock Events Center burst into action from Sunday, July 5th and continued non-stop until Saturday the 11th. The Arabian and Half Arabian Region III Championship Horse Show became the stage for some of the best, the most elegant and beautiful examples of this fine breed.

This year Nathan Kent proudly exhibited five Kent Performance Horses throughout the week. The show kicked off to a great start on Tuesday with the Arabian Reined Cow Horse class. Nathan, riding Santa Fe Grey, set a high standard as the first to run and lead for the entire class, walking out with the Champion ribbon hanging from his saddle. Without skipping a beat, Sagehills Honey Bunny ran, slid, and spun her heart out for Reserve Champion in the Half Arabian Reining Open. Two classes later, Kodinaborr, and Nathan's stallion, Nobles Top Gun, had their turn at victory in the Arabian and Half Arabian Reining Futurity. The only two purebreds in the class, Kodinaborr, in his Regionals debut, came in top five; and Nobles Top Gun, a double header Champion for the second year in a row, made it Nathan's third consecutive year winning the Reining Futurity. Friday proved to be another busy and successful day with Nobles Top Gun, Kodinaborr, and Santa Fe Grey entered in the Arabian reining open. These three magnificent horses each came home with a top five. Just when we thought things couldn't get any better, Ann McGregor and Karen Gardella finished off the show in the best way: winning two top fives in the Arabian Reining AAOTR, riding Djordje De Boise and Santa Fe Grey.

This great show week proved to be a huge success for Nathan Kent and his riders. We would like to extend a big "Thank you" to those who helped make the show possible, and a special "Thanks" for all the wonderful support.
